Too Fond of Samba

(Dennis Luxion, Nabel Music)

Once there was a girl ooh a very lovely girl who would dance all day and sometimes all night too but her parents did not think it right for her to dance all day and night they thought it was not quite polite behavior

so to save her

they said to their chou-chou “We think it’s time you ought to start acting like a lady and not dance round like a fool” so what did she do?
Nothing new she was much too fond of samba to put away her dancing shoes

Till We Get There

(Monika Linges, Nabel Music)

I wanna take you in my arms & keep you there forever and a day send reality away and pray it’ll stay that way

I wanna hold you close to me dark days we won’t see cause in our minds we’re free to dream in a fantasy into a bright tomorrow when feelings will be known as real and “love’s a grown-up God”

I wanna see it happen in this very life live before I die help love to survive - but I wanna hold you
till we get there.

Floating

(Monika Linges, Nabel Music)

Floating
on the edge of time drifting
thru a hemisphere of tender emotions

waves of peace and harmony
floating
to and fro while you were resting in my arms

reaching for each other from an old familiar need when you meet someone you’ve been loved by

before
many many lives
ago

in a world where we were not to be close together maybe cause we did not love enough haunted by forgotten tears for times when we were wrapped up in the dream that we shared

paradise is lost but it can also be regained we’ll meet again some place high up
on the edge
of our love.

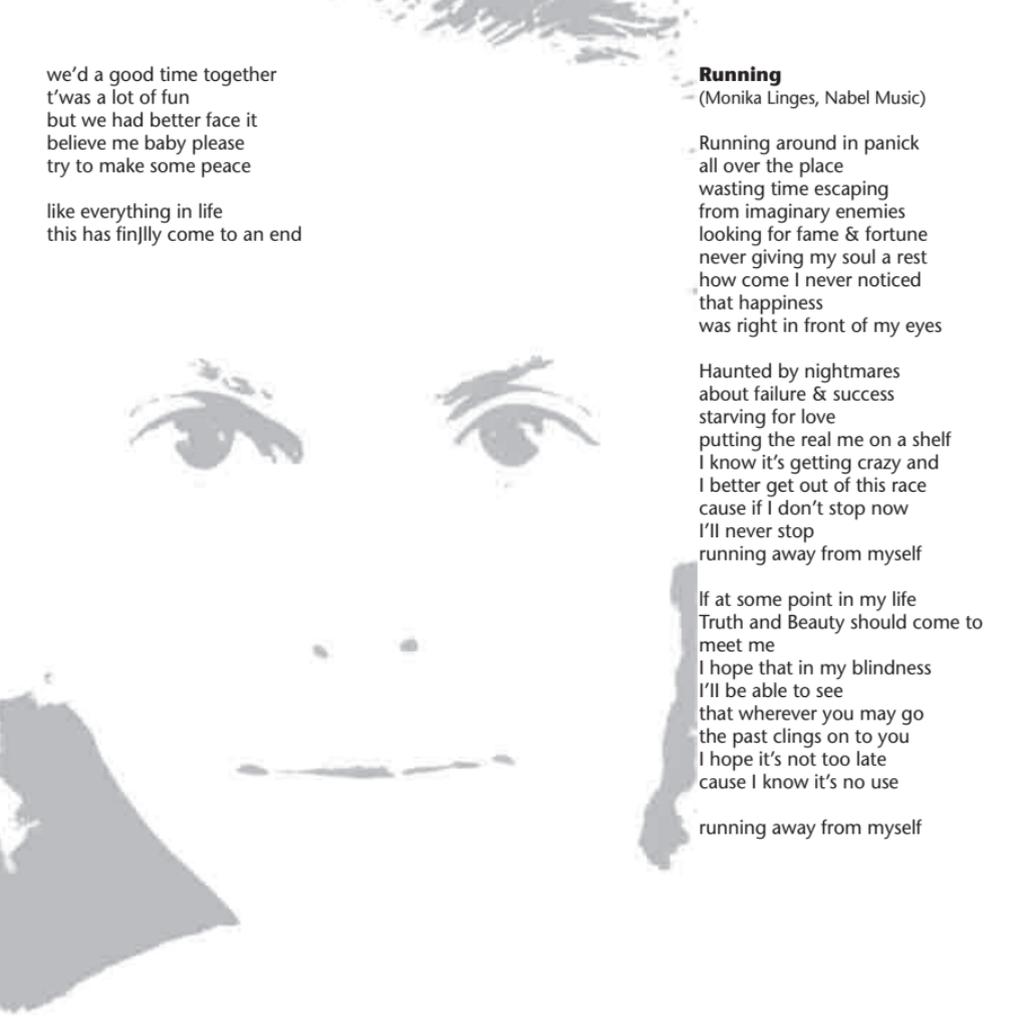

Blues Triste

(Dennis Luxion, Monika Linges, Nabel Music)

I’m pretty sure by now I’m thru with you
it’s over now I’ve had enough
I’m tired of you I’ve had it

Though I must say

we'd a good time together t'was a lot of fun but we had better face it believe me baby please try to make some peace

like everything in life this has finjly come to an end

Running

(Monika Linges, Nabel Music)

Running around in panick all over the place wasting time escaping from imaginary enemies looking for fame & fortune never giving my soul a rest how come I never noticed that happiness was right in front of my eyes

Haunted by nightmares about failure & success starving for love putting the real me on a shelf I know it's getting crazy and I better get out of this race cause if I don't stop now I'll never stop
running away from myself

If at some point in my life Truth and Beauty should come to meet me
I hope that in my blindness I'll be able to see that wherever you may go the past clings on to you I hope it's not too late cause I know it's no use

running away from myself

La danse du coeur

(Dennis Luxion, Monika Linges)

When souls related meet then
their hearts
start to move in dance.
La danse du coeur commence their spirits weaving in a trance whenever hearts dare take a chance their dance has been created in worlds above

When souls related meet then
their hearts
start to move in dance.
their bodies moving in a trance you'll understand by just one glance
their dance will never end but in worlds above

Player for the newborn

(Dennis Luxion, Monika Linges)

Here's a little prayer
this is a prayer for the newborn Let
the angels protect your soul May peace and friendly spirits guide you on your way
So you won't be afraid of your last day

May
serenity surround your heart with peace of mind We're praying
at the dawn
of your life
at the dawn

Here's a little prayer.

The World Was Young

(Monika Linges, Nabel Music)

Running through the rain walking through the fields Time was not in vain living was for real Things we used to do when the world was new

The world
was new
The world
was young

Dozing in the grass sleeping in the hay Time went by so fast living day by day
No fear of things to come when the world
was young

The world
was young

the world
was new

Death
was an unknown quantity Life was carefree
Time
to be

We
were free
the world
was young
